Robert:

Our deadline to respond to your discovery requests is today. However, we believe that Ms. Kramer has unfortunately just recently passed away, and we will not be able to provide substantive responses at this time. We will need some time to get in contact with her next of kin and discuss this case with them. Please confirm the extension for now, while we seek to work with her family in this difficult time.

The case is still live, though, and we are still planning to proceed with the deposition next week. We believe that we have a fiduciary obligation to her next of kin to continue with the case, and our class certification deadline is still coming up very soon.
Please let us know the status of the documents production as we need them prior to the deposition.

Thank you for your understanding.
